INTRODUCTION

This report is compiled and published pursuant to the provisions of IC 33-2.1-7-3 which, among other things, provide that the Division of State Court Administration shall collect and compile statistical data and shall prepare and publish reports on the nature and volume of the work performed by the courts. The caseload data contained in this report represents the workload of the Indiana Judicial System during 1980. The fiscal information is not an exact accounting of funds; it is intended to present an overview of the expenditures of public funds on such system and the revenues derived therefrom.

The nature of the data collected from the trial courts is determined by the purpose and potential use of such data. Thus, the trial courts are asked to complete quarterly case status reports in which cases are monitored at two points, the initial filing of a case and its final disposition. The type of case and type of disposition (i.e., default, jury trial, bench trial, etc.) are further distinguished in order to provide a more accurate picture of judicial workload. The financial data reported reflects the total expenditure by each county on each court for an entire calendar year and the total revenues derived through the operation of the trial courts. Nineteen eighty is the first year during which caseload and fiscal information was collected from Indiana's City, Town and Small Claims Courts. Their inclusion in the reporting system was made pursuant to a legislative enactment requiring all such courts to supply the necessary data.

The prime responsibility for completing the quarterly case status and financial reports rests with the trial judge, but he or she may, and often does, designate a staff member as a preparer. More detailed descriptions of the caseload and financial reporting procedures are contained in this report.

This report is intended to be used by the trial judges in evaluating their performance and monitoring the caseload in their respective courts; by trial judges and county councils in providing adequate funding for the trial courts; by the General Assembly and their Committees; and by the Indiana Supreme Court in carrying out its administrative functions over the judicial system. The information provided herein presents a continuous factual basis for any long-term judicial planning for the State of Indiana.

The caseload reports of the Indiana Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals are prepared by the offices of their respective administrators and are reflected in this report. Both appellate courts are funded by state funds and have separate budgets. Their expenditures are also reflected in this report.

In order to aid in the understanding of the statistical information provided in this report, a description of the structure of Indiana's judicial system during 1980 follows.

INDIANA'S JUDICIAL SYSTEM

Article 3, Section 1 of the Constitution of Indiana provides:

> Three Departments - The powers of the Government are divided into three separate departments; the Legislative, the Executive including the Administrative, and the Judicial; and no person, charged with official duties under one of these departments, shall exercise any of the functions of another, except as in this Constitution expressly provided.

The judicial power of the State of Indiana is vested in a Supreme Court, a Court of Appeals, Circuit Courts, and such other courts as the General Assembly may establish.[1] The General Assembly has from time to time established other courts vesting them with specific powers. The Superior and County Courts are such legislatively created courts. The former have general trial jurisdiction while the county courts have more limited jurisdiction. Additionally there are city and town courts with even more limited jurisdiction. Specialized courts and additional tribunals with limited jurisdiction are found in the more populous counties.

1) Ind. Const., Art. 7, Sec. 1.

SUPREME COURT

The Indiana Supreme Court consists of five justices, one of whom is the Chief Justice of the State (selected by the Indiana Judicial Nominating Commission).[2]

The Supreme Court has no original jurisdiction except in (a) admission to the practice of law; (b) discipline and disbarment of those admitted; (c) unauthorized practice of law; (d) discipline, removal, and retirement of judges; and (e) exercise of jurisdiction by other courts.

Its appellate jurisdiction includes appeals from judgments imposing a sentence of death, life imprisonment or imprisonment for a term greater than 10 years; cases where a state or federal statute has been declared unconstitutional; appeals from denial of release in habeas corpus cases arising out of criminal, extradition or mental health proceedings; and, on petition, cases involving substantial questions of law, great public importance, or emergencies.[3]

The justices are appointed by the Governor after nomination by a Judicial Nominating Commission. After an initial two-year term, they run on a "Yes--No" retention ballot, and, if successful, they then serve ten-year terms.

COURT OF APPEALS

The Court of Appeals became a constitutional court under a 1970 revision of the Constitution. The Judicial Article provides that the state be divided into geographic districts by the General Assembly, and that each district have three judges.[4] Presently, the court has four districts, with a total of twelve judges.[5] The twelve judges select one of their number as Chief Judge, and each district elects a presiding judge.[6] The Court of Appeals has no original jurisdiction except as authorized by Supreme Court rules to review directly final decisions of certain administrative agencies.[7] It has jurisdiction over all appeals not taken to the Supreme Court.

The judges of the Court of Appeals are selected in the same manner as the Supreme Court Justices.

CIRCUIT COURTS

The Indiana Constitution directs that the state be divided into several circuits by the General Assembly and that a judge be elected for each circuit.[8] Eighty-six, of a total of ninety-two counties, each constitute a circuit, while the remaining six counties are in three "joint" circuits with two counties each.

The Circuit Courts are vested with unlimited trial jurisdiction in all cases, except when exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction is conferred upon other courts. They also have appellate jurisdiction over appeals from City and Town Courts[9] and, in Marion County, from the Small Claims Courts.[10]

The Circuit Courts in twenty-one counties are required to maintain a small claims docket where civil claims of $1,500 or less and possessory actions between landlord and tenant, where the rent does not exceed $500 per month, may be filed. A litigant on the small claims docket need not be represented by an attorney because the trials are held in an informal atmosphere.[11] In the remaining counties, the small claims dockets have been established either in the Superior or County Court in the county. The caseload on the former small claims dockets is usually referred to as the "County Court Function" of the Circuit or Superior Court due to the establishment of these dockets under the 1975 County Court Law.

SUPERIOR COURTS

Superior Courts are created by the General Assembly one at a time as local judicial needs change. Though their organization and jurisdiction may vary from county to county, for the most part, they are courts of general jurisdiction. They have the same appellate jurisdiction as Circuit Courts over appeals from City, Town and Small Claims Courts.

There are ninety-two judges serving the Superior Courts of thirty-seven counties. Eighteen of these counties have more than one such court or division. In ten of the thirty-seven counties statutory language sets up one unified Superior Court with two or more judges but several other counties, through internal rules, operate their courts as a unified county system. Eleven counties have their small claims divisions within the Superior Court (Allen, Cass, DeKalb, Dubois, Hendricks, Miami, Monroe, Newton, St. Joseph, Vanderburgh and Warrick Counties.) In Hendricks, Monroe and Vanderburgh Counties civil cases of up to $3,000 may be filed on the superior court small claims docket. Allen, St. Joseph and Vanderburgh Superior Courts have minor offenses dockets for all misdemeanors, Class D felonies, ordinances and infractions.[12] The superior courts in the remaining eight counties have similar offenses dockets but they do not handle Class D felonies.[13]

PROBATE COURT (St. Joseph County)

The St. Joseph Probate Court is the only specialized Probate Court left in Indiana.[14] The Court has one judge and has original jurisdiction in all matters pertaining to the probate of wills, appointment of guardians, assignees, executors, administrators and trustees, settlements of incompetents' estates and adoptions.[15] The court also has exclusive juvenile jurisdiction.[16]

MUNICIPAL COURT (Marion County)

The territorial jurisdiction of the Marion County Municipal Court extends to the City-County consolidation of Indianapolis-Marion. The court has fifteen judges, fourteen of whom are trial judges, and one a presiding judge. It has concurrent jurisdiction with the Criminal Court in all Class D felonies, misdemeanors, infractions, and over local ordinance violations. The court has jurisdiction to issue warrants upon probable cause for misdemeanors and felonies committed in the county and to conduct probable cause hearings, to determine sufficiency of recognizance and surety in felony cases, and upon probable cause determination to bind such cases over to a court with felony jurisdiction. The court's civil jurisdiction is concurrent with the Superior and Circuit Courts in all civil cases founded on contract or tort which do not exceed $12,500, and, irrespective of the value of property, in possessory actions between landlord and tenant.[17] Appeals from

16) IC 33-8-2-10.
17) IC 33-6-1-2.

the Municipal Court are taken to the Court of Appeals.[18]

COUNTY COURTS

In 1975, the General Assembly created a new system of County Courts to replace the Justice of the Peace Courts.[19] The County Courts began operating on January 1, 1976, when the majority of the Justice of the Peace Courts went out of existence. There are sixty-four County Court Judges in sixty-nine courts, serving fifty counties, with some counties sharing a court, and others having more than one.

The County Court has original and concurrent jurisdiction in all civil cases founded in contract or tort where the damages do not exceed $3,000, possessory actions between landlord and tenant where the rent does not exceed $500 per month, all actions for the possession of property where the value of the property sought to be recovered does not exceed $3,000, Class D felonies, misdemeanor and infraction cases, violations of local ordinances and surety of the peace cases.[20] The County Court also has a small claims docket like that of the Circuit Court for cases where the amount sought to be recovered is $1,500 or less and possessory actions where the rent reserved does not exceed $500 per month.[21]

The County Courts have been specifically precluded from exercising any jurisdiction over cases involving injunctive relief, partition of, or liens on, real estate, paternity, juvenile matters, probate, receivership or dissolution of marriage. It may conduct preliminary hearings in felony cases.[22]

Appeals from the County Court, including its small claims docket, go to the Court of Appeals in the same manner as appeals from the Circuit or Superior Court.

CITY COURTS

With the reorganization of Indiana's lower court structure, city courts were to be abolished as of 12/31/79. A 1978 legislative amendment,[23] however, now provides for the extension of such courts until December 31, 1983, if the city adopts an ordinance for such continuation. A city which exercises this option must give notice to that effect to the office of State Court Administration.[24] The exception to these provisions is that city courts in second-class cities, in counties with population in excess of 500,000 (Lake County) are not abolished.

There are a total of fifty-three city courts in Indiana with varied jurisdiction depending on the city's classification. All city courts have criminal jurisdiction of city ordinance violations and of misdemeanors and infractions.[25] City courts in second, third and fourth-class cities have concurrent jurisdiction in civil cases of up to $500. However, a city court has no jurisdiction in actions for slander, libel, foreclosure of mortgage on real estate, where the title to real estate is in issue, matters relating to decedents' estates, guardianships or actions in equity.[26] City courts in second-class cities in a county having three or more second-class cities (Lake County is the only county within this classification) have higher civil jurisdiction of actions involving no more than $2,500. The Lake County City Courts also have greater criminal jurisdiction. They can hear cases involving all violations of state statutes but may not assess fines in excess of $1,000 nor impose a sentence of imprisonment of more than one year.[27] The city courts in fourth-class cities which are not county seats also have higher civil jurisdiction and can hear actions involving up to $1,000.[28]

Appeals from a judgment of a city court may be taken to the circuit or superior court of the county and tried de novo.[29] Civil action appeals from Lake County city courts are also taken to the circuit or superior court but are tried on assignment of error.[30]

TOWN COURTS

Town courts are created by an ordinance of the town board of trustees.[31] As in the case of the city courts, town courts were to be abolished on December 31, 1979, and could not be created after such date.[32] Pursuant to a 1978 legislative amendment[33] the existence of town courts may be extended until December 31, 1983, if the town board adopted an ordinance to that effect. A town which has exercised this option must give notice to the division of State Court Administration.[34]

Town courts have exclusive jurisdiction of all town ordinance violations. They also have jurisdiction of all misdemeanors and infractions.[35] Appeals from the town court may be taken to the superior or circuit court of the county within thirty days from the rendition of the judgment.[36]

SMALL CLAIMS COURTS (Marion County)

The Marion County Small Claims Court has eight divisions based on township lines and has territorial jurisdiction throughout the county. The court's trial jurisdiction is concurrent with the Circuit, Superior and Municipal Courts in all civil cases founded on contract or tort in which the claim does not exceed $1,500,[37] in actions for possession of property where the value of the property sought to be recovered does not exceed $1,500, in possessory actions between landlord and tenant in which the past due rent at the time of filing does not exceed $1,500,[38] and cases requesting surety of the peace.[39] The Small Claims Court has no jurisdiction in actions seeking injunctive relief or involving partition of real estate, or to declare or enforce any lien thereon (with certain exceptions), or in cases in which the appointment of a receiver is asked, or in suits for dissolution or annulment of marriage.[40] The Small Claims Court is not a court of record,[41] and the appeals are tried de novo in the Circuit or Superior Courts in accordance with rules established by the Circuit Court.[42]

CASELOAD OF TRIAL COURTS

The trial court caseload data reflected herein was reported by the trial courts on a standard form (Quarterly Case Status Report) on a quarterly basis. These reports contain information on the cases filed (including those that come on a change of venue), disposed and pending at the end of the reporting period. This information is categorized by type of case, such as criminal, civil, dissolution, etc. The reports also show the method of disposition for the type of cases. Other matters, such as number of days with Judge Pro Tempore, number of trials disposed by Special Judges, number of cases heard or disposed by Masters, the use of Court Commissioner or Referee, and the number of days the Judge served in another County are also reported but are not reflected in this report. The information submitted on a quarterly basis has been combined and is presented here as yearly totals.

The reports are divided into three sets, caseload of the Circuit and Superior Courts, (including the Marion County Municipal, Juvenile, Probate and Criminal Courts, and the St. Joseph Probate Court), caseload of the County Courts and caseload of the City, Town and Small Claims Courts. The County Court caseload set includes the cases filed in the small claims and misdemeanor dockets of the Circuit and Superior Courts, where such dockets exist. This caseload is referred to as a "County Court Function" of the Circuit and Superior Courts.

As used in this report, the following definitions apply:

Criminal: This includes both misdemeanors and felony cases. Where multi-defendants are jointly charged and tried, only one criminal case is noted.

Re-Docketed Criminal: This includes those criminal matters which are reopened after an initial judgment is entered. An example of this type of case would be a proceeding under Post Conviction Remedy Rule 1.

Juvenile: This includes all juvenile matters where formal proceedings are initiated and such proceedings concern a minor.

Civil: This includes all civil cases other than dissolution, probate, adoption, or guardianship cases. In the County Courts and the "County Court Function" of the Circuit and Superior Courts, small claims are reported separately.

Re-Docketed Civil: Those civil matters which for some reason are again brought before the court following the entry of the initial judgment.

Dissolution: Cases where the parties seek to dissolve a marriage.

Re-Docketed Dissolution: Dissolution cases where the cause is brought before the court after the initial judgment. This would include petitions to modify and contempt citations.

Probate-Adoption: Those proceedings involving the distribution of estates or adoption of children. This would not include claims against an estate which are litigated; such matters are shown as "civil" cases.

Non-Felony Traffic: Cases where a traffic citation was issued.

Guardianship: This involves such matters as where a guardianship is opened under existing law of the State.

Others: This category is intended to include matters where an adjudication is made, but the full formalities of a trial are not involved. This would include probable cause determinations and committment proceedings.

*Includes both direct appeals as well as cases in which a Petition to Transfer has been filed in a Criminal case and an Opinion has previously been issued by the Courts of Appeal; does not include cases in which a Petition to Transfer has been filed in Civil cases which are handled by the Supreme Court Administrator.

Also, this column indicates only the cases as initially distributed; it does not include those instances in which transfers of cases occur between Justices, where the Justice to whom the case was initially distributed cannot obtain a majority in support of his original draft of opinion, nor where cases are redistributed to equalize the caseload between Justices.

 Pursuant to Internal Rules of Court, in the distribution of Direct Appeals, the Chief Justice is skipped every 3rd Round in such distribution.

FISCAL REPORT

Pursuant to a legislative directive[1] and Administrative Rules of the Indiana Supreme Court, the Office of State Court Administration collects statistical data on the receipt and expenditure of public moneys by and for the operation of the courts.

The information is gathered on an annual basis at the end of each calendar year on forms designed by this office. Beginning with 1980, revenue and expenditure reports are required from all trial courts, including the small claims and city and town courts. The requested data includes the court's requested and approved budgets for 1981, the actual expenditures for 1980, and the revenues collected during 1980 through the operation of such courts. The report, however, reflects only the actual expenditures and revenues.

Following is a summary of the 1980 expenditures of the courts and revenues generated through their operation.

EXPENDITURES

The Circuit, Superior, Probate, County and Municipal Courts

1) IC 32-2.1-7-3(b)

are supported primarily by county funds. State funds are used for a portion of the judges' salaries[2] and reimbursements to the county for special judge costs[3]. The city and town courts are supported by the municipality. In many instances there is no separate city or town court budget, in that all expenses are paid directly from the local general fund. This practice makes it extremely difficult to provide accurate expenditure information. The Small Claims Courts of Marion County are supported by their respective townships.

Within twenty days following the end of a calendar year, each trial court is requested to submit a report on the actual expenditures of the court. The reporting form follows accounting reports filed with the State Board of Accounts and deals with five major areas: Personal Services, Contractual Services, Supplies, Current Charges and Properties. Each of these areas contains more information on specific items. The city, town and small claims courts submit their budgets and expenditures on the same forms.

In some of the more populous counties, separate budgets may be maintained for probation, juvenile services or public defense. These expenditures have been included in the final totals.

2) IC 33-13-12-7.
3) Ind. Rules of Ct., T.R. 79(14) and C.R. 13(14).

Expenditures which have not been included in this report are those that are not budgeted for within the court's budget. Thus, expenses for the prosecutor and clerk of the county (which offices submit and operate their own budgets) are not included in this report. The acquisition and operation of physical facilities for juveniles (juvenile dentention centers), when distinguishable from temporary juvenile care, have also been excluded since such expenditures fall more appropriately under corrections-related expenditures rather than judicial functions.

REVENUES

The typical sources of revenues in the trial court are filing fees and fines. The fines and forfeitures are designated for a special state fund, the Common School Fund.[4] Following is a list of the fees collected in the more typical cases.

1. The docket fee in civil cases in Circuit, Superior, Probate[5] and Municipal[6] Courts, and on the plenary docket of the County Court,[7] is twenty-three dollars ($23). Seven dollars ($7) of that sum go to the state as state docket fee, six dollars ($6) are deposited with the county general fund as clerk's service fee, and ten dollars ($10) constitute advance payment of costs for service of process by registered or certified mail. If such service is not effective, an additional ten dollar ($10) fee is charged for service of process by the sheriff.[8]

The docket fee for civil cases on the small claims dockets of the Circuit, Superior, and County Courts is ten dollars ($10) and goes to the county.[9]

The docket fee for civil cases in the city courts is five dollars ($5). A fee of two dollars ($2) is charged for each case received on a change of venue.[10]

2. In criminal cases filed in the Circuit, Superior and Probate Courts, a ten dollar ($10) fee is charged upon conviction, which fee goes to the County General Fund.[11] In criminal cases in the Marion Municipal Courts a docket fee of fifteen dollars ($15) is charged. If the case involves a violation of an ordinance the fee is deposited in the City General Fund. Fees from other criminal cases are deposited in the County General Fund.[12]

In the city and town courts a fee of ten dollars ($10) is charged in each case where a defendant is adjudged guilty of a violation of a statute or an ordinance. The docket fee is for the use and benefit of the city or town.[13]

3. A prosecutor's fee[14] of eighteen dollars ($18) is charged in all criminal cases, except in felonies and Class A misdemeanors. Four dollars ($4) of this fee go to the County General Fund while the remainder of the fee is deposited in the State General Fund. Portions of that deposit are distributed to designated funds: one dollar ($1) in a continuing law enforcement academy building fund and two dollars ($2) in the continuing law enforcement training fund.

In cases involving Class A misdemeanors or felonies, the prosector's fee is thirty-four dollars ($34). It is distributed as the fee of eighteen dollars ($18) with the additional amount being earmarked for a violent crime victim's compensation fund ($15) and a rape victim services fund ($1). When the prosecutor is required to appear in non-criminal cases, twenty dollars ($20) is collected and deposited with the State General Fund as "state counsel fees".[15]

4. In addition to the above fees, in any case in the Circuit, Superior, Probate and Municipal Court, and on the plenary docket of the County Court, a judicial fee of nine dollars ($9) is charged and paid to the state.[16] (Of this fee, $1.30 is deposited in a special retirement fund.) The judicial fee in cases on the criminal docket of the County Court, or the misdemeanor dockets of the Circuit and Superior Courts is one dollar ($1).[17]

This report reflects the fees listed above, service of process fees and jury fees.

The report also includes the revenues collected through the three dollar ($3) fee charged in all traffic cases for the Bureau of Motor Vehicles[18], and the ten dollar ($10) fee charged for enforcement of support orders.[19] It does not reflect the sums paid into the County General Fund by other counties for cases coming to the court on a change of venue. In counties which are adjacent to the more populous counties and thus receive many cases on change of venue, this amount could be considerable.

5. Courts having misdemeanor jurisdiction may establish alcohol and drug service programs pursuant to special guidelines. When such a program has been established, the court may set an additional fee of not less than one dollar ($1) or more than five dollars ($5) which is added as part of the costs in all cases involving violations of state law or city ordinances filed in the county. This fee, when collected, is deposited in a special alcohol and drug services program fund.[20]

6. An additional fee of ten dollars ($10) is taxed as costs in all actions for dissolution of marriage. They are paid to the State Treasurer who deposits the same in a Domestic Violence Prevention and Treatment Fund.[21] This fee is reflected in the report but is included in the "other" category of "revenues going to State funds" and is specifically footnoted as such.

There are many other fees collected during the course of a proceeding. Such fees are not enumerated above but should be reflected in the "other" category of the report.
